DIRECTIONS: Use this form if you are requesting a parenting (custody or visitation) order in your Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order Petition (Form 10.01-D). If another court is already addressing or has addressed custody issues involving the children, custody and visitation issues may be handled in that case. By law, this form must be filed and served with the first pleading filed by each party in every parenting (custody or visitation) proceeding in this Court including a Petition for a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order.

If you need more space, attach an additional page.

Petitioner, _____, states under oath or affirmation that these cases involve the custody of a child or children and the following statements are true. The following regarding issues relevant to parenting of the following minor child(ren):

Name(s) of Child(ren)	Date of Birth

1. Pursuant to R.C. 3127.23(D), I am requesting that the Court not disclose my current address or that of the children. My address is confidential and should be placed under seal because my health, safety, or liberty or that of the children would be jeopardized by the disclosure of the identifying information.

2. Beginning with the child(ren)'s present address, state the residence where the child(ren) lived within the last five years, and the names and relationship of the persons with whom the child(ren) lived during that period.

Do not include the addresses if confidential.
